To take our minds off the image of the demolition of Gilcrease as we knew it, we are “shifting gears” a bit to focus on some Tulsa history that was happening at the same time that Mr. Gilcrease was charting his course. On March 4th, docent Becky Hatchett will be sharing via Zoom and PowerPoint the history of “Railroads, Roughnecks, Red Fork, and the Route 66 Historical Village.” Most of us who grew up in Tulsa or have been long time residents have some knowledge of Rt. 66. Becky’s presentation will focus on the history, sculpture, and culture of Rt. 66 as it leaves 11th street, crosses the river, and becomes Southwest Boulevard. As the centennial of Rt. 66 approaches it is an interesting time to look at some significant Tulsa history that is not always “in the news.” Hope you will join us!

Welcome Back!

Pam Proctor, an active Gillie from 1990-2007, recently requested reinstatement as an Associate Gillie. Pam actively served as docent chair and day captain, holding each position several times. Every year she was involved she served well over 250 hours per year! She is also an accomplished watercolor artist and often exhibited her work in the Gillies Art Show. We are glad she is interested in keeping up with what is on the horizon for Gilcrease and the Gillies.
