Gillies! Mark your calendar for this members only event!

Master the online collections – Join Gilcrease staff Tuesday, June 23, at 6 p.m. for a members-only webinar exploring the Gilcrease online collections website. In this webinar, you will learn tips and tricks to better navigate the online collection and increase your search success, followed by a live question-and-answer session with the digitization team. Check your email on Monday for the link to the webinar.

Gillies: Let us know what you are up to. If you are doing fun things, exploring interests, honing hobbies, or enjoying moments of contemplation this summer, email photos and descriptions to me: aetrisler09@gmail.com

In his own words, here is what Gillie Jim Elder has been up to:

"I have been working on an Art degree at TCC, while also teaching biology as an adjunct. This Spring semester was interesting with on campus classes and then having to switch over to online.

I finished my Drawing II class and this is one of the pastel assignments we had to complete. My theme was the education of women, based on biologist E.O. Wilson's quote "The education of women is the best way to save the environment". The drawing shows women graduates looking up at mother earth (based on Apollo 8 famous photo of the earth rise over the moon landscape). They are standing in a somewhat bleak atmosphere, possibly depicting their own environment - showing hope for the future."

On to another life – Former Gillie Shirley Joan Batchelor passed away in Dallas, Texas on Sunday, June 7, 2020, at the age of 87. Shirley served as a Gillie and Docent volunteer at Gilcrease during the 1990s. Her family stated that donations may be made in her name to Gilcrease Museum.

Thank you, Gillies dues payers! This is just a friendly reminder for those who have not:
