

Friday Footprints

"Every man must leave a track and it might as well be a good one."
-Thomas Gilcrease

September 4, 2020

3 Lucky Gillies Went Back to Work:

On Tuesday, September 1, Melissa Ski, Gilcrease's Studio Manager and Visual Arts Program Specialist, enlisted the help of three Gillies, Reita Adams, Bob Ritz, and Susan Lorton, our Gillies Student Art Show Chair, to work installing the Quartz Mountain Student Art Show. It was a small but mighty force. They hung 59 works in five hours! One piece of art arrived with a broken glass, but never fear, it will be hung in its designated space when repaired. They were grateful to be helping and we are grateful they did. Thank you, Gillies!

Activities:

Don't forget, today, Friday, September 4, at 10:30 am – Taco-Making with Casa Del Tequila will be on Facebook Live. Watch a live demonstration of how the pros make the perfect taco and get ready to celebrate Hispanic Heritage Month (September 15 – October 15).

Distance Learning Opportunities:

Julie Mehretu, internationally renowned artist presents "Grey." This lecture is part of The Clarice Smith Distinguished Lectures in American Art, a forum for discussing the creative experience and exploring what American art is today. Produced by the Smithsonian. <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=aCIDZVPaNWk>
[1:20:51]

Thomas Eakins and the "Grand Manner" Portrait

Sponsored by the National Gallery of Art, this lecture is part of the Wyeth Lecture Series in American Art.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=KdFzqZiGofA>

[1:21:13]

"Love is the only force capable of transforming an enemy into a friend." - Martin Luther King, Jr.